Case No. 22-10943 (MEW)

(Jointly Administered)

THE PLAN ADMINISTRATOR'S EX PARTE MOTION FOR ENTRY OF AN ORDER
PURSUANT TO FEDERAL RULES OF BANKRUPTCY PROCEDURE 2004 AND 9016
AUTHORIZING AND DIRECTING SUBPOENAS FOR THE PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS BY, AND THE EXAMINATION OF, (I) DALLAS BASKETBALL
LIMITED D/B/A/ DALLAS MAVERICKS, AND (II) MARK CUBAN

<sup>1</sup> The Wind-Down Debtor in these chapter 11 cases, along with the last four digits of each Wind-Down Debtor's federal tax identification number, are: Voyager Digital Holdings, Inc. (7687); Voyager Digital Ltd. (7224); and Voyager Digital, LLC (8013). The service address for purposes of these chapter 11 cases is 27777 Franklin, Suite 2500, Southfield, MI 48034.

Paul R. Hage, in his capacity as the Plan Administrator (the “Plan Administrator”) for the Third Amended Joint Plan of Voyager Digital Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) [Docket No. 1166-1] (the “Plan”) of Voyager Digital Holdings, Inc., et al. (collectively, the “Wind-Down Debtor” or “Voyager”), hereby submits this ex parte motion (the “Motion”), for the entry of an order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the “Order”), pursuant to section 105 of the Bankruptcy Code, Rules 2004 and 9016 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), and Local Rule 2004-1 of the Local Bankruptcy Rules for the Southern District of New York (the “Local Rules”).

The requested Order authorizes the Plan Administrator to serve subpoenas substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibits B-C (the “Subpoenas”) for the production of documents by, and the examination of, (i) Dallas Basketball Limited d/b/a/ Dallas Mavericks (“Dallas Mavericks”), and (ii) Mark Cuban (“Cuban”) (each party in the foregoing clauses (i) and (ii) a “Rule 2004 Party” and, collectively, the “Rule 2004 Parties”).<sup>2</sup> In support of this Motion, the Plan Administrator represents as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. The Plan Administrator respectfully requests that the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the “Court”) enter the Order authorizing him to issue the Subpoenas for testimony and the production of documents from the Rule 2004 Parties pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2004 and the Plan. The Plan Administrator is a fiduciary appointed under the

<sup>2</sup> The Plan Administrator requests that any Rule 2004 Party that is not a natural person be required to designate a representative of such Rule 2004 Party who is most knowledgeable about the matters for examination set forth in the Subpoenas pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 30(b)(6).

Plan who is expressly charged with the responsibility of “seeking the examination of any Person pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2004[.]”<sup>3</sup>

2. The Rule 2004 Parties possess information that relate to the “liabilities and financial condition of the debtor” and “to any matter which may affect the administration of the debtor’s estate.” See Fed. R. Bank. P. 2004(b). For instance, Voyager entered into contracts with celebrities, promoters, and entertainment companies, for their marketing of the Voyager platform and Voyager products, including with Cuban and the Dallas Mavericks. Voyager paid a substantial amount in compensation and sponsorship to Cuban and the Dallas Mavericks in exchange for their public promotion of Voyager. In addition, both Cuban and the Dallas Mavericks were paid a commission for each new customer who signed up to Voyager platform through their referrals.

3. Given the Rule 2004 Parties’ substantial relationship with Voyager, the Subpoenas seek information well within the ambit of Rule 2004. The Subpoenas are narrowly tailored, will not unduly burden the Rule 2004 Parties, and properly relate to “acts, conduct, or property or to the liabilities and financial condition of the debtor, or to any matter which may affect the administration of the debtor’s estate, or to the debtor’s right to a discharge.” Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2004(a) (b).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4. The Court has jurisdiction over this matter under 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This matter is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b).

5. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

6. The statutory predicates for the relief requested herein are Section 105 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 2004 and 9016.

BACKGROUND

7. On July 5, 2022 (the “Petition Date”), the Wind-Down Debtor filed voluntary petitions for relief in the Court under the Bankruptcy Code.

8. On March 10, 2023, the Court entered the Corrected and Amended Order approving the Plan, pursuant to which third parties could contribute their claims to the Wind-Down Debtor, and such claims became the Wind-Down Debtor’s assets as of May 19, 2023, the Effective Date of the Plan.<sup>4</sup>

9. Pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Administrator is the sole representative of the Wind-Down Debtor and has authority to administer, pursue, prosecute, litigate, settle, dismiss or otherwise take action with respect to the Wind-Down Debtor’s claims—including assigned claims from third parties. Specifically, the Plan tasks the Plan Administrator with seeking Bankruptcy Rule 2004 examinations of any individual, partnership, and corporation.<sup>5</sup>

10. Voyager engaged in extensive marketing and advertising efforts. As part of these efforts, Voyager entered into sponsorship agreements with celebrities and sports leagues for the promotion of Voyager platform and Voyager products. Cuban and the Dallas Mavericks were key promoters of Voyager. Cuban publicly called the Voyager platform “as close to risk free as you’re gonna get in the crypto universe.”<sup>6</sup> And on multiple occasions, including during Dallas Mavericks’ press conferences, Cuban encouraged Dallas Mavericks’ fans to join Voyager: “I like to use it, it’s easy, it’s cheap, it’s fast, and the pricing is actually really good, so we find it a perfect fit for our Mavs fans and reaching Mavs fans of all ages.”<sup>7</sup> Cuban and the Dallas Mavericks received substantial compensation from Voyager for their promotion of the Voyager platform and products. In addition, a substantial number of new customers signed up to the Voyager platform using promotion codes associated with the Dallas Mavericks. Voyager customers brought class action lawsuit against Dallas Mavericks and Mark Cuban for their promotion of Voyager platform and products.

11. The Plan Administrator is seeking information concerning Cuban's and the Dallas Mavericks' knowledge of the truth or falsity of the marketing materials and of other representations relating to Voyager, Cuban's and Dallas Mavericks' knowledge and views concerning Voyager's regulatory and licensing status, and their knowledge and views of the overall safety and risk profile of the Voyager platform.

12. Accordingly, the Plan Administrator is seeking to issue the Subpoenas to the Rule 2004 Parties pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2004 as they possess information "which may affect the administration of the estate." See Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2004(b). The information requested herein properly relates to "acts, conduct, or property or to the liabilities and financial condition of the debtor, or to any matter which may affect the administration of the debtor's estate, or to the debtor's right to a discharge." Id.

RELIEF REQUESTED

13. By this Motion, the Plan Administrator respectfully requests entry of the Order, substantially in the form of the Order attached hereto as Exhibit A, authorizing the Plan Administrator to serve Subpoenas for Rule 2004 examinations substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibits B-C on the Rule 2004 Parties.

BASIS FOR REQUESTED RELIEF

I. Powers and Duties of the Plan Administrator

14. Pursuant to section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, a plan may provide for “the settlement or adjustment of any claim or interest belonging to the debtor or to the estate” or the retention and enforcement by “a representative of the estate appointed for such purpose, of any such claim or interest.” Moreover, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2004, “[o]n motion of any party in interest, the court may order the examination of any entity.” Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2004(a) (b).

15. Under the Plan, the Plan Administrator is a “party in interest” entitled to conduct Bankruptcy Rule 2004 examinations for the following reasons.

16. First, the Plan appointed the Plan Administrator as the sole representative of the Wind-Down Debtor and vested in him the authority to administer, pursue, prosecute, litigate, settle, dismiss or otherwise take action with respect to the Wind-Down Debtor’s claims and causes of action.

17. Second, the Plan expressly tasks the Plan Administrator with the responsibility to seek “the examination of any [individual, partnership, and corporation] pursuant to the Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2004.”<sup>8</sup>

18. Finally, the Plan Administrator has a fiduciary obligation to stakeholders to make an informed decision as to whether potential claims exist, and if so, whether to pursue them.<sup>9</sup> Conducting Rule 2004 examinations will allow the Plan Administrator to seek the information necessary to discharge this fiduciary obligation.

II. Applicable Law

19. As explained above, Bankruptcy Rule 2004 provides that, “on motion of any party in interest, the court may order examination of any entity” related to “acts, conduct, or property or to the liabilities and financial condition of the debtor, or to any matter which may affect the administration of the debtor’s estate.” Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2004(a) (b). In re China Fishery Group Ltd., 2017 WL 3084397 at *4 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2017); In re SunEdison, Inc., 562 B.R. 243, 249 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2017).

20. The purpose of a Bankruptcy Rule 2004 examination is to “assist a party in interest in determining the nature and extent of the bankruptcy estate, revealing assets, examining transactions and assessing whether wrongdoing has occurred.” In re Recoton Corp., 307 B.R. 751, 755 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2004) (allowing Rule 2004 examination because “on its face the Motion appears to be a legitimate attempt to investigate potential claims that might benefit the bankruptcy estates.”) Bankruptcy Rule 2004 permits discovery “to determine the extent of the estate’s assets and recover those assets for the benefit of creditors.” In re Madison Williams & Co., LLC, 2014 WL 56070, at *3 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2014) (holding that non-party witnesses were not entitled to a protective order with respect to the scope of discovery sought under the Bankruptcy Rule 2004 examination because “the scope of the information sought was properly within the scope of permissible inquiry by [the Trustee] in investigating the acts, conduct, or property of the debtor”); see also In re Duratech Indus., Inc., 241 B.R. 291, 296 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 1999) (explaining that Bankruptcy Rule 2004 facilitates “the central purpose of a bankruptcy case, namely, to maximize the distribution of assets or plan payments to unsecured creditors”).

21. The party seeking Bankruptcy Rule 2004 discovery has the burden to show good cause for the examination it seeks, and the decision to grant the requested relief lies within the sound discretion of the Bankruptcy Court. See In re Bernard L. Madoff Inv. Secs. LLC, 2014 WL

5486279, at *2 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2014). Good cause is established when a Bankruptcy Rule 2004 examination is used for the purpose of “‘discovering assets, examining transactions, and determining whether wrongdoing has occurred’ on behalf of the Debtors’ estate.” In re Gawker Media LLC, 2017 WL 2804870 at *5 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2017) (allowing Plan Administrator to conduct 2004 Examination when the proceeds of litigation will be paid to the creditors under the Plan). As long as the examination is not designed to “abuse or harass” a third party, the court will allow it. See In re Recoton Corp., 307 B.R. at 755.

22. The scope of discovery allowed under Bankruptcy Rule 2004 is “very broad and great latitude of inquiry is ordinarily permitted.” In re Madison Williams, 2014 WL 56070, at *3. “It is well settled that the scope of examination allowed under Bankruptcy Rule 2004 is broader than discovery allowed under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and may be in the name of a ‘fishing expedition.’” In re Hughes, 281 B.R. 224, 231 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2002) (denying motion to quash Bankruptcy Rule 2004 subpoenas because the subpoenas enable the Joint Liquidators to exercise the powers entrusted by the court, which is to investigate the debtor’s “financial affairs, and contribute to an economical and expeditious administration of this estate”).

23. Courts routinely allow examination of third parties who have had dealings with the debtor. See In re Recoton Corp., 307 B.R. at 755 (“Any third party who has a relationship with a debtor may be made subject to a Rule 2004 investigation”).

24. Additionally, Bankruptcy Rule 2004 examinations are appropriate with respect to assigned claims as “the assignment of a nondebtor’s claim against another nondebtor may constitute property of the estate if such assigned claim became part of the bankruptcy estate as a result of a post-petition transaction by the trustee and in accordance with the trustee’s duties to administer the debtor’s estate.” In re Ecam Publ’ns, Inc., 131 B.R. 556, 561 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1991). See also Semi-Tech Litig., LLC v. Bankers Trust Co., 272 F. Supp. 2d 319, 323-24 (S.D.N.Y.

2003), aff'd & adopted, 450 F.3d 121, 123 (2d Cir. 2006) (holding that the liquidating trust has standing to bring third party claims assigned to it under a confirmed Chapter 11 plan).

III. Good Cause Exists to Allow the Plan Administrator's Rule 2004 Subpoenas

25. The Subpoenas requested herein fit squarely within the purpose of Bankruptcy Rule 2004, as the Plan Administrator seeks to examine a third party, with whom Voyager had substantial business dealings, for the purpose of “discovering assets, examining transactions, and determining whether wrongdoing has occurred.” In re Gawker Media LLC, 2017 WL 2804870 at *5. As set forth above, Cuban and the Dallas Mavericks were key promoters of the Voyager platform and products and provided substantial assistance to Voyager in engaging in the activities that are now or were the subject of complaints and investigations by governmental entities. More specifically, Cuban and the Dallas Mavericks played a critical role in Voyager's marketing and customer acquisition plan in states across the country. Examining their knowledge of the truth or falsity of those marketing materials and Voyager's legal authority to do business in the states in which they were soliciting customers is well within the ambit of Rule 2004. Accordingly, the Plan Administrator has demonstrated that good cause exists for issuing the Subpoenas.

NOTICE

26. Pursuant to Judge Wiles' Chambers Rules on 2004 Orders, “[r]equests for 2004 orders may be submitted ex parte but the Court, in its discretion, may require notice and a hearing.” The Plan Administrator is proceeding with this Motion on an ex parte basis.

27. Courts in this district and others have recognized that a Bankruptcy Rule 2004 examination may be commenced by an ex parte motion. See In re Toft, 453 B.R. 186, 198 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2011) (noting that “an examination under Bankruptcy Rule 2004 may be commenced by an ex parte motion”); In re Kramer, 492 B.R. 366, 372 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 2013) (noting “[t]he Rule 2004 Application could have been made ex parte” and that “Rule 2004 does not require notice”).

Indeed, bankruptcy courts in this district have recently granted similar requests to serve subpoenas ex parte. See, e.g., In re Celsius Network LLC, et al., Case No. 22-10964 (MG), Docket No. 2701 (S.D.N.Y. Bankr. 2023) (granting ex parte motion for Rule 2004 examinations). Accordingly, requests for relief under Bankruptcy Rule 2004(a) are routinely granted ex parte. See In re Silverman, 36 B.R. 254, 256-57 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1984).

28. Although this Motion is being filed ex parte, any concerns regarding notice or due process are addressed by the fact that any person or entity ultimately served with a Subpoena will receive a copy of the Order and they may contest the scope or issuance of any Subpoena. The Rule 2004 Parties will have ample opportunity to seek from this Court protection from any Subpoena or information sought by the Subpoenas issued by the Plan Administrator that the Rule 2004 Parties believe they have a basis to challenge.

29. Based on the foregoing, the Plan Administrator submits that the Motion can and should be granted ex parte, and that no further notice should be required.

NO PRIOR REQUEST

30. No prior request for the relief requested herein has been made by the Plan Administrator to this Court or any other court.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

31. The Plan Administrator reserves all rights, claims, defenses, and remedies, including, without limitation, the right to amend, modify, or supplement this Motion, to seek additional discovery from any party, add additional parties, or to raise additional grounds for granting this Motion during any hearing on the Motion, if one should be held.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, for the reasons stated herein, the Plan Administrator respectfully requests that this Court enter an Order, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2004, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, authorizing the issuance of Subpoenas for testimony and the production of documents from the Rule 2004 Parties, and granting to the Plan Administrator such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

(made applicable in bankruptcy cases by Rule 9016, Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure)

(c) Place of compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

(A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or

(B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person

(i) is a party or a party's officer; or

(ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

(A) production of documents, or electronically stored information, or things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and

(B) inspection of premises, at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

(i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.

(ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

(i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;

(ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

(i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

(i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and

(ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

(i) expressly make the claim; and

(ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt. The court for the district where compliance is required — and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court — may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45(c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)
(made applicable in bankruptcy cases by Rule 9016, Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure)

(c) Place of compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

(A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or

(B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person

(i) is a party or a party's officer; or

(ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

(A) production of documents, or electronically stored information, or things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and

(B) inspection of premises, at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

(i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.

(ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

(i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;

(ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

(i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

(i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and

(ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

(i) expressly make the claim; and

(ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt. The court for the district where compliance is required — and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court — may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.
